Why roll with sustainable brown towels?

Help reduce your environmental footprint

Our towels made of recycled material, can help you make a softer environmental impact.

Improve perceptions of your brand

The brown color can help customers notice your sustainability. It's something they can think about as they make buying and loyalty decisions.

Sustain business with top quality. Our towels offer...

Comfort & Care

Designed to be softer on hands than the average brown towel, for an experience your customers can appreciate.

Fast drying

Our towels are absorbent, which can help dry hands faster, so people can get back to business.

Strength customers can count on

Our towels are good for a broad range of applications and give the quality you expect from a recognized brand.

Did you know?

Adding our dispensers can help boost efficiency and help reduce waste.
